

General Privacy Policy

Effective March 2010

Our Commitment to Privacy

Your privacy is important to us. To better protect your privacy we provide this notice explaining our client information practices and the choices you can make about the way your information is collected and used. To make this notice easy to find, we make it available on our homepage and at every point where personally identifiable information may be requested.

The Information We Collect

We do not collect any information from our website. To view our foreclosure prevention client privacy policy, please view our Housing Counseling/Foreclosure Prevention Program page (under "Programs"). At SWIC, we generally collect the following information for all of our programs and services:

Name
Address
Email address
Phone number
Age
Ethnicity

We do not share this information with outside parties.

The Way We Use Information:

We might call you, email you, or mail you information about upcoming events and programs at SWIC. If you do not want us to contact you for any reason, please let us know. We also use this information in reports to funders.

Our Commitment to Data Security

To prevent unauthorized access, maintain data accuracy, and ensure the correct use of information, we have put in place appropriate physical, electronic, and managerial procedures to safeguard and secure the information we collect at SWIC or over the phone.

How to Contact Us

Should you have other questions or concerns about these privacy policies, please call us at [303]922-2928 or send us an email at [bethswic@hotmail.com].
